Discovering Flavours

“My journey into the world of gastronomy began 50 years ago in my native Germany. Over the next five decades, I lived and cooked in various countries, where I developed both as a chef and as a person. This menu is a journey through that life’s journey, featuring dishes I created in the places that left the deepest impression on me. I hope that through them, you will discover my essence.”

Joachim Koerper

On this Surprise Menu, we will start with our bread service, two different butters and olive oil with Chef Joachim Koerper’s Signature.
